Donation of property for proposed firehouse acknowledged at ceremony

The West Liberty Volunteer Fire Department presented a plaque of appreciation to the Commercial Bank board of directors on Aug. 6, for the bank's donation of land on which a new city firehouse and countywide fire training facility will be constructed.

The land is located on Index Hill below Whisman's Body Shop.

Mayor Bob Nickell opened the ceremony and introduced several special guests, including Judge Executive Tim Conley, State Sen. Robert Stivers and USDA Rural Development Representative Pam Farmer.

Several Commercial Bank employees were also in attendance including CEO Hank Allen, who lauded fire department members.

"Commercial Bank is proud to donate this property to the West Liberty Fire Department," Allen said. "These firefighters provide a great service, and we hope this land donation will be a step in helping them better protect the public."

Following Allen's remarks, Mayor Nickell said that he is seeking funding to construct the firehouse.

"I hope the city can find $700,000 to $1 million for this project," Nickell said. "We are shooting for the top of the mountain. The new building will not only serve as a firehouse once it is constructed, but also a training center for all county fire departments."

WLFD Assistant Fire Chief David Conley said an integrated training facility with equipment storage space would improve fire service throughout the county.

"Many of our firefighters with the county departments work in city limits," Conley said. "We would like to keep a truck from each department at the new firehouse to give firefighters easier access to equipment during the day."

"City and county firefighters will also have a great opportunity to train together, which will help

Board effort to collect past due school lunch fees comes under fire

At issue: More than $13,000 in 2007-08 delinquent bills

By Miranda Cantrell
James

The Morgan County Board of Education came under fire last week after it sent a letter to some parents and guardians outlining possible options for the collection of more than $13,000 in delinquent lunch fees.

The letter, which was sent on Aug. 4 by School Food Services Director Brenda Bruce Whitt, reads as follows:

We can turn the account over to a collection agency, we can take the account to small claims court, we can garnish wages, or we can elect to serve your child/children an alternative meal. This meal would consist of something like crackers with peanut butter and water. No one wants to see your child/children eating this fare when the other children are eating pizza and spaghetti and chicken nuggets. However, you leave us with no alternative but to use one or all of these methods to assure that their account is paid or at least does not get even larger.

Superintendent of Schools Joe Dan Gold said this letter was not the first attempt to contact parents about the overdue charges, most of which had accumulated during the 2007-2008 school year.

"There have been ongoing efforts to contact parents about the overdue fees," Gold said. "That includes personal contact, letters and telephone calls to people who owed $40-$50. The board has in the past also sent certified letters and taken some parents to small claims court."

An April 28 letter obtained by The Courier from Whitt to indebted parents also warned of possible legal repercussions for food service charges that ex-

U.S. Sen. Mitch McConnell discusses proposals for solving the current energy crisis and lower gasoline prices during a visit with constituents last Friday at the MSU at West Liberty campus.

Sen. McConnell visits, discusses energy crisis

By Miranda Cantrell
James

U.S. Sen. Mitch McConnell (R) visited MSU at West Liberty last Thursday to address approximately 50 to 75 local citizens, officials and community leaders about his bid for re-election this November and his proposed solutions to the nation's current energy crisis.

Sen. McConnell was welcomed to Morgan County by Mayor Bob Nickell and Judge Executive Tim Conley, who lauded the senate minority leader's efforts to seek funding for city and county projects.

"Sen. McConnell has line itemed many projects that have truly helped Morgan Counties," Conley said. "He is a true gentleman who believes in Kentucky. We are fortunate to have a man of such great influence in Washington who always puts Kentucky first."

Sen. McConnell, who was first elected to the U.S. Senate in 1984, said his political experience enables him to better serve all Kentuckians.

"I brought $500 million into Kentucky during the past year," Sen. McConnell said. "It is an indisputable fact that if voters

High school falls short on NCLB 2007-08 assessment

The 2007-2008 Adequate Yearly Progress Report for No Child Left Behind (NCLB) was released last week with all of Morgan County's elementary schools meeting the goals established by the NCLB Act.

Under the NCLB Act a school/district must make 100 percent of its target goals in order to qualify as having made Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). All student scores in reading and Math (Kentucky Core Contest Test) are calculated together and broken into subgroups to determine if each group has met the target goals.

Achieving 100 percent of their target goals in reading and math were Morgan County Middle School, West Liberty, East Valley, Ezel, and Morgan Central elementary schools.

Students at Morgan County High School fell short in mathematics and failed to meet AYP.

Joined At The Hip

Vehicle searches at prison result in three arrests

Aug. 11 – Vehicle searches during visitation at the Eastern Kentucky Correctional Complex in West Liberty resulted in three arrests.

The Eastern Kentucky Corrections Emergency Response Team (CERT), assisted by the Kentucky State Police and the West Liberty Police Department, conducted vehicle searches of all staff and visitor vehicles on Saturday, Aug. 9. No violations were reported from the staff vehicles searches; however, three visitors were arrested and taken to local jails.

Prison authorities, using our CERT personnel and assistance of local law enforcement, conduct periodic and unscheduled vehicle searches during inmate visitations as part of ongoing security measures for the institutions.

“This is a continuing effort by the Department of Corrections to maintain security at our prisons,” said Deputy Commissioner Al Parke “The introduction of contraband is a major concern and one that needs constant vigilance.”

Gary Popp of Mooreland, Okla., was in possession of five weapons: four pistols and one rifle, approximately 216 rounds of ammunition, several knives, and several prescription drugs not in a proper container. Popp was charged with six counts of first degree promoting contraband, three counts of possession of a concealed deadly weapon, first degree possession of controlled substance, and prescription drugs not in a proper container, first offense. He was housed in the Rowan County Jail.

Alisha Whitt, Louisa, had a white powdery substance around her nose and three prescription pills in an unmarked bottle in her purse. She was arrested and charged with first-degree possession of a controlled substance and housed in the Carter County Jail.

Rena Ooten, London, was in possession of two methadone pills and a search of her vehicle produced a knife approximately 10 inches in length and a leatherman tool. Ooten was arrested and charged with first degree promoting contraband and first degree possession of a controlled substance. She was housed in the Carter County Jail.

Four indicted for nonsupport

Harold Craft, 38, of Lowe Hollow Road, West Liberty.

Aaron Lewis, 35, of Old Hwy. 172, West Liberty.

Free hay sampling for beef, equine producers offered

One of the best management practices a farmer can adopt is hay testing. Knowing the quality of hay can reduce feed costs and improve animal health. For those who are purchasing hay, it is important to ask the seller for a forage analysis. Feeding low quality hay can cost you even more in the long run.

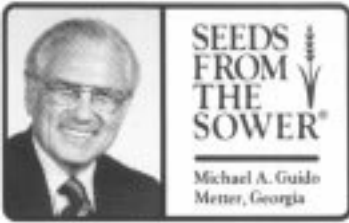

As part of the 2008 East Ky. Beef Cattle Council Annual Hay Contest, the Morgan County Extension Service is offering FREE on farm hay sampling for local hay. Please contact the office at 743-3292 to sign up. A hay probe will be used to obtain small samples of different hay cuttings as well as any silage/haylage. The contest is optional, but participants will still receive free results and a balanced feed ration. Farm visits will be scheduled through the end of August, both day and evening times.

Morgan County's own Mr. Parley Cantrell, of Woodsbend, was the overall winner for quality at last year's regional contest.

Hay contest results will be announced at this year's UK Robinson Station Field Day on Thursday, September 25th.

For those farmers needing hay samples for goats, sheep and other livestock, contact the Extension office at 743-3292 for additional options available from the Ky. Department of Agriculture.

Ben Franklin wanted to install street lighting in Philadelphia, but he knew the city fathers would refuse to pay the price.

So he hung a beautiful lantern on a long bracket in front of his house.

People, stumbling in the dark, rejoiced in Franklin's well-lit area. Soon his neighbors did as he did. Before long, the whole city saw the value of street lighting.

Franklin achieved what he wanted by example, without arguments. For one example is worth a thousand words.

No wonder the Bible says, "Be an example in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity."

Lunch Fees ...

Much of the negative reaction to the Aug. 4 letter following an Aug. 8 report by WKYT reporter Denny Trease stemmed from the board's alternative meal proposal.

An anonymous Morgan County mother left the following comment on the television station's website:

"If a parent said they would only feed their children peanut butter crackers and water, social services would be called on them. In the times we live in now, where everything costs more than it should, children should be able to depend on getting fed at school."

Gold told WKYT that the board wanted to raise awareness of the option though the letter's language could have been "softened a little bit."

"The board will make sure students get something to eat while they are at school," Gold said. "As far as I know, the alternative meal option was not enforced last year. The school system will continue to feed students, but it will also make efforts to collect overdue lunch fees."

"The board is also willing to help low-income parents work out lunch payment plans, and assist them with applications for free or reduced lunches for their children. Our goal is to keep meal prices low for everyone."

The superintendent noted that some parents paid a total of approximately $1,500 in delinquent lunch fees after the letters were mailed.

The board of education urges anyone with questions regarding school food service fees and/or policies to contact their child's school, or to call Brenda Bruce Whitt at 743-8002.

NCLB ...

MCHS achieved 70 percent of its target goals.

At the elementary level, at least 60.45 percent of the students tested in reading must score at the proficient or distinguished levels. In math, 41.84 percent of students must score proficient or distinguished to meet the goal.

At the high school level, 49.32 percent of students tested in reading must score proficient or distinguished and 38.6 percent for math.

These Annual Measurable Objectives (AMO) are a part of the NCLB Act and are set through the year 2014.

Other components included in the determination of AYP include participation rate, measuring graduation rates and drop-out rates at the high school level and meeting other academic indicators, which differ depending on the grade level. Each year, a greater percentage of students must meet the AMO set for both reading and math and the other components.

trade me in for a freshman Democratic senator, there would be a dramatic loss of political influence and financial assistance for Kentucky."

(Sen. McConnell's general election opponent is former Democratic gubernatorial candidate and entrepreneur Bruce Lunsford, of Louisville.)

The senator also discussed what he described as "the biggest political issue since terrorism" – record-high gasoline prices and alternate energy sources.

"Gas prices of $4 per gallon are not acceptable," Sen. McConnell said. "This is devastating for middle- and low-income families. The United States needs to find more domestic oil, while developing technologies to use less oil. This would not only reduce gasoline prices, but also make the American dollar much stronger."

Sen. McConnell suggested that Congress open the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge (ANWR) in Alaska for oil exploration to counter the annual petroleum import cost of $55.1 billion.

According to anwr.org, a political action group that supports drilling in the wildlife refuge, there are between approximately three and nine billion barrels of recoverable oil in a 1.5 million-acre tract in ANWR known as the Coastal Plain.

Officials from the environmental organization Greenpeace argue that oil exploration in ANWR could be a decade-long process that would have little impact on gas prices. The group also cites the possibility of oil spills as a danger to ANWR's fish and marine mammals.

Sen. McConnell also supports the development of battery-powered vehicles and higher fuel efficiency standards for automobile manufacturers to reduce fuel usage, in addition to liquid coal, ethanol and nuclear power as alternative energy sources.

"There is no reason why this country can't meet this challenge," Sen. McConnell said. "This is biggest problem confronting our nation in several years. There is no single thing that will solve it – the key is to move forward on all fronts."

The senator concluded with an optimistic message for the American public.

"America is still the greatest country in the world," Sen. McConnell said. "All of us can have a huge impact on this issue. We will solve this energy crisis – if the public demands a high level of non-partisan cooperation from our nation's leaders."

A THANK YOU

To all the People of Morgan County:

As I soon will be departing this area, I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank so many folks from Morgan County for your kindnesses and support over the last five years. This is especially true with all of the ministers of our area and the people of their churches. During my stay I attended many revivals and I can assure you that I and the Catholic people that I brought with me to those revivals were blessed in so many ways. I and the people of Prince of Peace Catholic church would like to assure all of you of our thoughts and prayers and thank you at the same time for your wonderful hospitality.

I want to also sincerely thank all of the people from the two prisons, namely Eastern Kentucky Correctional Complex in West Liberty and Little Sandy Correctional Complex in Sandy Hook, and also the Woodsbend Boys Camp. Prison work is a difficult task within our society and world today and I appreciate so much the wardens, guards, and chaplains for opening up the possibility for me to minister to the people of your institutions. I am deeply grateful.

Time always seems to move us on and this time, as I complete five years here and approach my 65th birthday, I will be moving on and taking some time to rest awhile, and then to make a decision as to what's next for me in the great arena of ministry within our Church. I ask for your prayers as I leave this county and assure you of my own.

God bless all of you and thanks again for everything.
Father Jerry Dorn, Pastor
Prince of Peace
Catholic Church

MIRACLE SEEN

It is not often that we get to witness a miracle, but I did and I want to share it. My pastor and friend, Mike Terry, donated his kidney to save his father's life. It was truly amazing to watch the change in his father upon receiving Mike's kidney. Mike Terry is a great example of the type of love that Christ has called us to display for his congregation at Christ's Way Christian Church.

Roger Carr, Associate Pastor, Aiken, South Carolina
Randolph Terry is a son of Thornton and Hazel Terry of Cannel City, Ky., and the father of Mike Terry, pastor and award-winning school teacher of Aiken, S.C.

Randolph Terry had been fighting kidney disease 10 years and had been selected to receive a kidney from two transplant centers, Christ Hospital Transplant Center, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Florida Hospital Transplant Center, Orlando, Fla. Both transplant centers have great professional staffs dedicated to the overall health of their patients.

Florida Hospital Transplant Center in Orlando was chosen because of convenience and the amount of transplant surgeries performed there — a little over 2,500 in the last few years.

The Terrys thank everyone for their prayers, including at least 18 churches from South Carolina, Ohio Texas, Florida, Maryland, Georgia, and several from Kentucky, four of which were from Morgan County.

Don't quit praying, but pray to our Creator and thank Him for all the good He does for all His children.

(Note: This letter was submitted for publication by Randolph Terry's sister, Virginia Terry of Hwy. 772, West Liberty.)

BOARD CANDIDATE WEIGHS IN

Dear Editor,

While watching a Channel 27 news video clip ("School Money Owed") on www.wkyt.com, I saw our Superintendent of Schools speak about how he wanted to draw attention and awareness to parents with delinquent lunch accounts. He explained with a chuckle that his letter was "a little harsh."

I did not find the matter funny, but did find the reaction by the superintendent disappointing.

During a meeting I attended regarding the past year's school budget — conducted by an outside auditor — I learned that there were no receipts to support school spending in the amount of over $10,000.

What attention and awareness is the superintendent providing to justify school funds spent and unaccounted for?

To better understand our future, we have to understand our past.

Respectfully,
Eddie Negron,
School Board Candidate,
District #3

Legal advertising provides vital info of public interest

Informed citizens know that one way to stay abreast of what is going on in state, county, and local government is to read the legal advertisements in their local newspaper. Ordinances, public meetings on planning for road and infrastructure projects, court notices of public sales, and other information of public interest are published regularly, as required by law.

Antique tractor show proposed

David McGuire, right, local vintage tractor enthusiast, was a recent guest of the West Liberty Kiwanis Club. McGuire, whose restored Oliver 500 tractor was featured in a national antique tractor magazine, discussed the possibility of an antique tractor show being held in conjunction with the Kiwanis Club's Annual Car Show, held in West Liberty each year on the second weekend in June. Kiwanis president, Tim Conley, is at left.

AREA DEATHS

Mary Columbia Fugate Murphy

Mary Columbia Fugate was born December 8, 1918, in Morgan County, Kentucky, the youngest child and only daughter of Uriah Wilson and Bertie Cecil Fugate. She died on July 29, 2008, at the home of her daughter, Mary Frances.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Rex, and son, Johnny Clay Wade Murphy, and one brother, Cummings Fugate.

She is survived by one daughter, Mary Frances Murphy Miller, and four grandchildren, John Nathaniel Miller, of Washington, D.C., Thomas Ryan Miller, of Morehead, Ky., David Michael Miller, of Los Angeles, CA., and Sarah Marcole Miller, of Louisville, Ky.; one brother, Woodrow Wilson (Mae) Fugate; and one niece, Bertie Ruth (Bernard) Murphy, of Morgan County; four nephews, Scotty (Linda) Fugate, Danny (Carol) Fugate, Johnny (Anita) Fugate, and Jerry (Beverly) Fugate; several great and great-great nieces and nephews, many special cousins, and a wealth of friends.

Mary's formative years were spent on the family farm in Morgan County where she kept busy with chores both inside and outside, and tried to keep up with her two older brothers. Brother Woodrow tells of the time when the three siblings were riding in a wagon pulled by mules, and the reins broke. Both brothers bailed, but Mary's dress got caught. Her mother had to run the mules down to rescue her daughter. That was one of the many times she voiced her distaste for having to wear girl clothes. Those hand knitted stockings really bothered her, too. Briars and thorns attached themselves to her legs when she was playing in the fields with her brothers. She envied their practical attire and longed for the day when she too could dress that way. Eventually, of course, she could, but that was years away and didn't help when keeping up with the brothers was all important. It was that fierce desire to keep up with them that helped her develop a love of the outdoors, of riding horses, of fishing, and maintaining a healthy lifestyle filled with physical activity. She attributed her long life to eating healthy, exercising, and she remained free of health related issues until her fall two years ago. She was also proud of the fact that she never drank coffee or soda pop, and that alcohol never touched her lips. She would say of herself, "I'm happy. I'm healthy. I'm holy." And we can say of her, that was not brag, that was truth.

After graduating from Ezel High School, Mary attended Lees Junior College, at Jackson, for two years, then transferred to Kentucky Wesleyan, in Winchester, Kentucky where she graduated with a teaching certificate. Her math skills placed her in the top one percent nationally. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution since her senior year of high school, and later was selected to be a Kentucky Colonel. While at Kentucky Wesleyan she was active in any form of athletics available to a woman at that time. She won an award for holding her breath and swimming under water. For many years, she participated in the Kentucky Wesleyan class reunions. For her 55th reunion, she planned a hayride and was completely surprised when not one of her 77 year old former classmates was interested. She had to cancel the event. The following year she went with the younger alums and talked about how the ride to the top of the hill was more beautiful than she had remembered.

She returned to Morgan County after graduation, but her teaching career was short-lived. After only a year or two in a Morgan County one-room school, she was offered a position at the Commercial Bank, in West Liberty. She accepted the offer and worked there for several years.

After the end of World War II, she met a young soldier back from his tour of duty. Mary Columbia Fugate wed William Rex Murphy. To this union were born two children, Johnny Clay Wade and Mary Frances. Until Rex's death in 1983, Mary worked tirelessly by his side on their dairy farm, with sheep, horses, beef cattle and dairy cattle, and in the fields and gardens.

Horse shows and county fairs. She never missed many of either. She would enter flower arrangements, canned goods, baked items--and won ribbon after ribbon. It wasn't so much the winning that she sought, but the camaraderie she experienced in the interaction with the other contestants. She made and maintained many a friendship through county fairs and horse shows. She rode in her last horse show at the age of 82.

Mary loved to fish. She would head out to Blackwater or the lake and never tell a soul where she was going. When she was nearly 84 years old, she went fishing at the lake with a close relative. After fishing through a pouring rain, the bank had slipped and in she tumbled. She made the young man promise he would not tell Mary Frances, and he didn't, until much after the fact.

Mary's number one love was her family. She became the indispensable grandmother, eagerly accepting the roles of babysitter, chauffeur, short-order cook and confidant for her four grandchildren. She escorted them to piano lessons, gymnastics, T-ball, Little League, cheerleading practice, and ball games. She never missed a piano recital, or a game if Sarah cheered or if one of the boys played.

Mary was a devoted member of the Pine Grove Community Church and cherished the many friendships she made there. Her Christian values were manifested in the everyday generosity, empathy and concern she had for others. She visited nursing homes, the hospital, or shut-ins on a regular basis. She had been known to drive to the store in ice and snow to get a loaf of bread for one of three local ladies for whom she felt personally responsible. She attended her home-making meetings devoutly and with enthusiasm. Mary had her own agenda and she kept busy helping others.

It was said of Mary by a lady who knew her well, "No preacher or church member has done more for this community than Mary Murphy has."

There can be no greater legacy. (pd)

Dog Days at the Pool

Helping Hands for Animals, a local animal welfare organization, is sponsoring a "Poochie Pool Party" on Saturday, Aug. 16, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., at the Kiwanis Pool in West Liberty. The cost is $5 per person, but dogs will be admitted free of charge. We ask that all dogs attending the pool party have proof of their rabies vaccination or proof of shots. We also ask that no dogs in heat attend since this will be a co-ed party. Rain date for the party will be Sunday, Aug. 17.

Helping Hands for animals is sponsoring this event to raise funds for spay/neuter financial assistance which is the main function of the organization. Their goal is to educate the public as to the importance of spaying/neutering their pets to reduce the numbers of stray and unwanted pets in our county.

With the wonderful news that we will soon be getting an animal shelter in this county it is even more important that as many animals as possible be spay/neutered to prevent unwanted pregnancies in the pet population, and prevent over-crowding at the animal shelter. There are way too many puppies, and it is virtually impossible to find homes for all of them; it then becomes necessary to humanely euthanize large numbers of these animals.

It is the hope of Helping Hands for Animals that eventually our county can be proud to say we are controlling our stray dog situation, not be euthanizing them but by preventing them from having unwanted puppies. Helping Hands for Animals meets monthly in the Fiscal Court Room at the Community Center at 6:00 p.m. on the second Thursday of each month. We welcome anyone who wants to volunteer! We can use your help in fostering dogs temporarily until good homes can be found; also in helping with fundraising efforts which allow us to assist people with the cost of spaying/neutering their animals.

For information on our organization, or for assistance with spay/neuter costs, please feel free to call Vicki Stacy at 743-7261.

We look forward to seeing everyone on Saturday at the pool party for the last big splash of the summer!

Strange looking fish

This strange looking fish was caught last summer from Licking River by Chris Rowe, son of Norman and Lisa Rowe of River Road, West Liberty. It looks like a channel cat to us. Maybe it was born with the deformity or was injured as a minnow and survived. The Rowses said they turned the fish loose and it's probably still lurking in the deep hole at Twenty-Two Hollow.

THINK ON THESE THINGS

If you are ever plagued with doubt, and question whether God's about, try thinking on some simple things; you'll be surprised the peace it brings a sleeping child, a summer's day, a puppy, awkward in it's play, the clean, washed air that follows rain. A diamond frosted window pane, and apple tree all pink and white, the stillness of a starlit night, a fire crackling on the hearth. The smell of freshly spaded earth, a trail you knew once long ago, picket fence high-capped with snow. A song your mother used to sing... why you can pick most anything and you will find your answer there. It's still God's world, He's everywhere.

Make sure summer fun doesn't turn to disaster

Summertime is a fun time for Kentuckians, but it's important that families keep safety in mind during outings to the pool, beach, an area park or in their own backyards.

That advice comes from Kentucky Farm Bureau, the state's largest membership association with more than 460,000 member households.

Fun destinations like the beach can become dangerous if people don't take the proper precautions. In Kentucky, 92 children and youth died as a result of drowning from 2002 to 2007.

One of the more popular outdoor activities in Kentucky is riding ATVs. The high speeds and heavy machinery that accompany ATVs make it necessary for riders to take safety measures to keep themselves and others safe.

If people are planning to spend any amount of time outside, they need to be aware of the weather and the heat. The harmful rays of the hot sun can cause sunburn as well as weaken immune systems. Thunderstorms can also be a threat during Kentucky summers.

To keep Kentuckians safe this season, Kentucky Farm Bureau offers these summer safety tips:

- Avoid going outside from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., when the sun's rays are strongest.

- Wear a water resistant sunscreen with a SPF of 15 or more.

- Stay indoors if thunderstorms are likely. When caught outside in a thunderstorm, stay out of water and move to the nearest shelter.

- Always wear a helmet when riding ATVs or other outdoor vehicles.
- Never leave a child unsupervised around water, no matter how shallow it is.

- Do not mix alcohol or drugs with swimming, boating, diving, or driving.

For more summer safety tips, visit www.kyfb.com.

Household Hints

Apply WD-40 to loosen rusty bolts. If that doesn't work, apply a few drops of ammonia or soda pop.

Keep speed low. High speed around curves is much more harmful to tires, especially in summer.

Overloading the trunk of your car robs you of gas mileage.

Avoid adding air to your tires at temperatures below 30 degrees as air valves on your tires can stick, causing a flat tire.

Apply clear nail polish to a small scratch on the finish of your vehicle to prevent rust and soon the scratch may disappear.

Launder baby socks and hair ribbons and other small items in a woman's discarded knee-high stocking. Tie a knot in the end and wash only with colorfast items.

MUTUAL LOVE

Where you love somebody a whole lot, and you know that person loves you, that's the most beautiful place in the world.

— Ann Cameron

Praise in the Pines

Praise in the Pines is a non-denominational youth rally that takes place in the Ezel community. Last year, on September 16, this event was a huge success. Attendance was around 300 people. Six people were saved. All who attended had a great time listening to contemporary gospel groups such as Sacred and Hundredfold. We are currently seeking churches and businesses to join us in funding this event again. If you would like to help spread the gospel to youth (and everyone) in the area, contributions can be made to Praise in the Pines, and mailed to: Patty Cole, Treasurer, 456 Liberty Street, Ezel, Ky. 41425 or to Tammy Cole, Co-Treasurer, 109 Bryant Fork Road, Ezel, Ky. 41425. Donations can also be deposited in the Praise in the Pines Account at Ezel Banking Center. Thank you and God bless.

Morgan County is eligible to apply for The Center/ARC mini-grants

Morgan County is eligible to apply for up to $20,000 in funding support through the Developing and Implementing Community Strategies program, administered by The Center for Rural Development, to develop a strategic plan or implement a community project outlined in an existing community-based strategic plan.

The Center, a non-profit economic development organization headquartered in Somerset, is accepting applications for grant proposals through Friday, Aug. 29, in the second round of funding released by the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC). Thirty-two Southern and Eastern Kentucky counties, which have been identified by ARC as distressed counties for the 2008 fiscal year, may apply for The Center/ARC mini-grants.

As part of the Developing and Implementing Community Strategies program, The Center will be providing technical assistance and seed money to assist local units of government with the creation of a strategic plan or with the implementation of priority community development projects identified in existing community-based strategic plans.

Communities will be given an option to apply for an implementation grant to implement portions of their existing comprehensive strategic plans or a plan development grant to assist them in the creation of a comprehensive community-based strategic plan. All implementation grant projects will be drawn from a community-based strategic planning process document. Communities cannot apply for both grants.

"At the core of The Center's mission is to stimulate innovative and sustainable economic development solutions in the region we serve, and these grants target communities that have the ideas, but lack the resources, to move them forward," said The Center for Rural Development President and CEO Lonnie Lawson. "The Center/ARC grants awarded in 2005 made a significant impact on each of the counties and cities that received them and served to underscore the critical importance of strategic thinking and planning – regardless of the size of the community. We fully expect that this funding will build on that beginning and impact our region to a much greater extent."

Individual project awards range from $5,000 to a maximum of $20,000. Selected communities will be required to provide a local match of 20 percent in an amount relative to their grant award. The project period will be from Oct. 15, 2008, to April 15, 2009. Grant projects must be completed six months from the award date.

Grant recipients are scheduled to be announced Sept. 26. Four Southern and Eastern Kentucky communities were awarded mini-grants in the first cycle of funding released earlier this spring.

Counties, and their cities within, are eligible to apply for funding support. They include: Bath, Bell, Breathitt, Casey, Clay, Clinton, Cumberland, Estill, Floyd, Harlan, Jackson, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Lawrence, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Lincoln, Magoffin, Martin, McCreary, Menifee, Monroe, Morgan, Owsley, Perry, Rockcastle, Russell, Wayne, Whitley and Wolfe.

An application form will be e-mailed to prospective applicants upon request. For more information, contact Pat Bradley, associate vice president of arts, culture and entertainment and Developing and Implementing Community Strategies program manager, at 606-677-6000 or pbradley@centertech.com.

Farm/Home Safety Tips

- Replace 2-wire 115 volt outlets with new 3-wire grounded outlets. The third prong fitted into a grounded outlet completes the grounded system & protects you against current from defective appliances & equipment.
- Inspect overloaded wiring. Additional wiring may be needed to handle increased electrical loads; whenever toasters or heaters are slow, lights dim or TV picture temporarily shrinks. Prevent overloads by using the right size & type fuse.
- Stay out of a flooded basement while electricity is still on. Call your cooperative office. Disconnect utilities yourself only if the basement is dry. Also, turn off the gas. A light switch can ignite gas in a flooded basement. Before using equipment, gas or wiring again have them checked by a qualified serviceman.
- Replace extension cords with permanent wiring & outlets wherever you regularly plug in appliances or lamps. Extension cords provide temporary service, but could cause tripping, fire & shock hazards when used in one location for several months.
- Label entrance panels. Show what use is made for each circuit. When a fuse blows or breaker opens, the source of trouble can be quickly identified if labels tell which lights, outlets or equipment are on each circuit.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF INTENT TO REQUEST A RELEASE OF FUNDS

August 14, 2008
Kentucky Housing Corporation
1231 Louisville Road
Frankfort, KY 40601
Mark Offerman,
Chief Operating Officer
TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about August 31, 2008, Kentucky Housing Corporation (KHC) will request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to release Federal funds for the following project:

Project: Frontier Housing, Inc.--Frontier Housing 2008 Homebuyer program

Purpose: Frontier Housing will develop 15 new affordable single-family homes for low-income families or scattered sites in their 9 county Appalachian service area in eastern Kentucky. Both site-built and manufactured homes will be utilized in this project. Additional units may be completed in the next few years if the initial project goes smoothly. The project could also, under certain conditions, assist up to three families to rehabilitate their current dilapidated housing.

Location: Scattered sites located in Bath, Carter, Elliott, Fleming, Magoffin, Menifee, Morgan, Rowan and Wolfe Counties, Kentucky.

Approximate HOME Funds in Project: $400,000.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the within project has been made by KHC which documents the environmental review of the project. The Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request during normal business hours.

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by KHC to the Chief Officer. Attention: Crystal Harrod. Such written comments should be received at the above address on or before August 30, 2008. All such comments so received will be considered and KKHC will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the within project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

KHC will undertake the project described above with HOME funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under Title II of the National Affordable Housing Act of 1990. KHC is certifying that KHC as State Participating Jurisdiction consents to accept the Jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, KHC may use the HOME funds and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and other related laws and authorities. HUD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following bases: (a) That the certification was not in fact executed by KHC's Certifying Officer; or (b) that KHC has failed to make one of the two findings pursuant to 24 CFR Part 58 Sec. 58.40 or to make the written determination required by Secs. 58.35, 58.47 or 58.53 for the project, as applicable; or (c) KHC has omitted one or more of the steps set forth at subparts E of 24 CFR Part 58 for the preparation, publication and completion of an Environmental Assessment; or (d) KHC has omitted one or more of the steps set forth at subparts F and G of 24 CFR Part 58 before release of funds and approval of the environmental certification by HUD; or (f) A Federal

Visitors at local nursing home!

Anna Cantrell, SRNA/KMA, at West Liberty Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, with the help of her husband, Esquil, brought her mule, Fly on the Wall, and a jack named Barney for the residents to see and pet. The residents were reminiscing about mules, horses, and other farm animals they had in their lives. After finishing her shift, Anna went home, collected Fly on the Wall and Barney, and brought them to the facility. Pictured above are resident, Roger Gevedon, and Housekeeping Supervisor, Donna Carty, visiting with Barney.

Lewisies grow huge cabbage head!

Mrs. Pam Lewis and husband, Donald, harvested this huge cabbage from their garden recently. The cabbage head weighed 21.8 pounds. Mrs. Lewis, who is an avid gardener, said this was one of the largest heads in the patch. Usually she would have prepared this for the dinner table or froze it for later use, but this big cabbage ended up arranged in a basket, along with other nice home grown veggies, and auctioned off during the annual Jim Prater family reunion August 9. Each year, the Praters have an auction to help defray expenses that come with the reunion. The bidding stopped at $28 on the big cabbage and other veggies included in the basket!

Brothers separated by 200 miles give blood on same day

They are the sons of M.C. Haney, Jr. and Jeneen and Tom Roach. The next blood drawing in West Liberty is scheduled for Sept. 11.

Middle School Cougars displayed juggernaut offense in season opener.

Middle School Cougars open season; post crushing win over West Carter

The 2008 football season kicked off August 7 with the Middle School Cougars taking to the gridiron versus West Carter. The Cougars wasted little time bringing excitement to Herdman Field. Austin Arnett returned the opening kickoff from the Cougar 25 yard line; then, Joe Holbrook rambled 75 yards for a Cougar touchdown on the very first play from scrimmage. Cody Thornsberry carried the ball for the conversion and the Cougars led 8-0.

After kicking to the Warriors, the Cougar defense took to the field and on the first snap of defensive football the Cougars' Kole Vanover came up with a fumble recovery. Six plays later, the Cougars capitalized on the turnover with a five yard run by Cody Thornsberry for the second Cougar score.

The Cougars never looked back from this point in the game. The Cougar defense was dominant, not allowing a West Carter first down in the entire game. Offensively, the Cougars were just as dominant, scoring 56 points for the game.

I was very pleased with the game — our kids played intensely and never really allowed West Carter to get on track,” remarked Coach Turner. “I was especially impressed with our defense. Our kids played nearly a flawless game on defense.”

Sack by Jordan Whitt was a highlight of crushing defense.

The Cougar defense was paced by Jose Santiago, who led the team with seven tackles. Walker Crase had six bruising tackles; Tyler Conley four; Austin Arnett, JT Brown, Corey Muse, and Eli Haney each had two tackles. Jordan Whitt had three tackles and a sack. Corey Muse scored a safety for the Cougar defense with a tackle inside West Carter's end zone.

The Cougar offense put together a juggernaut performance with 252 yards rushing on 28 attempts, an average of nine yards per carry! “This was made possible due to a dominant showing by our offensive line. I am very pleased with our kids' efforts up front last Thursday,” stated Turner. “I would like to mention our offensive line, because their name will rarely appear in a stat sheet, but they make everything go for our power running offensive scheme. Eli Haney is our center. JT Brown and Kole Vanover play guard. Our tackles are Jose Santiago and Brandon Gearhart, and at tight ends, we feature Tyler Conley and Chase Turner.”

In the backfield, the Cougars play Joe Holbrook and Walker Crase at wing. Larrin Collins, injured for this game, is the normal starting QB. He was replaced by 7th grader Cody Thornsberry, who did a fabulous job of running the Cougar offense. Finally, at fullback, Jordan Whitt is looking impressive this season for the Cougars.

Offensive stats include: Joe Holbrook carried the ball twice for 94 yards and 2 TD's. Other Cougars to score included Jordan Whitt, Walker Crase, Hunter Adams, Cody Thornsberry, Logan Easterling, Austin Arnett, Mikey Whisman, and Jamie Haney. The Cougars never attempted a pass.

Head Coach Brian Turner gave high praise to his coaching staff. “I have three great assistant coaches (Will Noble, Head Coach of JV team and running backs coach; Chris Smith, Head Coach of Sixth Grade team and offensive and defensive line coach; and John Brown, Scout Booth Coordinator and line coach). They work hard every day to make sure our kids are well-prepared to play.”

Following the varsity game, the Cougar JV team also came up with a win over the West Carter squad. Final score, 8-0.

The Cougars will be back in action tonight at 6:00, at Herdman Field, taking on the Hornets of Magoffin County. The Cougars would love to have a big showing of hometown fans for this bordering county rivalry game. Be sure to bring your fly (hornet) swats.

Promising UK golf signee honed his skills at PVCC

By David Patrick

Salyersville native Chase Carpenter is making a name for himself as an amateur golfer. Following his sophomore year at Magoffin County High School, Carpenter was recruited by the University of Kentucky. Prior to his senior year, Carpenter committed to the Wildcats and is now a redshirt freshman on the UK golf team.

But his road to Lexington actually began in West Liberty. At the tender age of three, Carpenter began playing at Pleasant Valley Country Club with his father, Tommy, and uncle, Mark Rice.

“This is where I grew up playing,” Carpenter said. “I would ride in the golf cart (provided by cousin Earl Treadway) and watch my dad and uncle play. With that, I was learning the basics of the game. Soon, I started playing myself and got hooked. I’ve played ever since.”

As a young man, Carpenter played at PVCC for about six years. Now as a 20-year-old UK student-athlete, he recently finished runner-up at the Lexington City Amateur Tournament.

Carpenter played at four courses — shooting a 75 on the opening day at Tates Creek. He then turned in the beset round of his life with a 64 the following day at Picadome.

“I’ve never played that well before,” Carpenter said. “Everything just seemed so easy. I played with a lot of confidence and birdied nine holes. It was a good day.”

After shooting a 71 at Picadome, Carpenter was just four shots back going into the final round. He then shot a 72 at Kearney Hill, finishing two shots behind tournament champion, Cale Barr.

“It was a great experience that helped me gain a lot of confidence,” Carpenter said. “It’s fun playing golf, but even better when you’re playing well.”

Bass tourney winners

Headwaters Bass Club had a night tournament at Grayson Lake Saturday, Aug. 2. Winning first place and catching the big fish were Josh Swoig and Tim Smith with two fish weighing 4.65 pounds; the big fish weighed 2.64 pounds. Coming in second were Rick Salyer and Cordale Francis with two fish weighing in at 4.09 pounds. Third place went to Andrew Legg with two fish weighing in at 2.83 pounds. If you're wondering were Martha Legg was, she went to my daughter's baby shower instead of fishing, which I really appreciate. —Andrew Legg

Trap shooters represent area well at SCTP Nationals

On August 4 and 5, over 2,100 youth from 35 states competed in the Scholastic Clay Target Program in Sparta, Ill., to compete for Scholarship awards in Trap Shooting. Members from the Morgan-Elliott 4-H Shooting Sports joined the SCTP program to get this chance.

From Elliott County were Jessica Litton, Joseph Litton, Wade Conn and Patrick Moore. From Morgan County were Casey Cantrell, Johnny Skaggs, Aaron Barker, Marshall Jordan, Amber Adkins, Donovan McGraw, Josh Reynolds and Chris Reynolds.

The Varsity division, grades 9-12, placed 20th out of 126 and the Intermediate division, grades 6-8, placed 27th out of 47. This was exceptional placement as the kids shot against trap shooters from states that have Trap Shooting in their high school athletics program and practice on a daily basis.

Coaches were John Litton, Scott Litton, Belinda Adkins and Kim Horton. The trip would not have been possible without the support of the citizens and businesses of Elliot and Morgan counties that supported the organization's fundraisers. We would like to thank the following businesses for donations to help with the trip.

From West Liberty: Commercial Bank, Rotary Club, Mountain Telephone, Bank of the Mountains, Seasons Florist, Quality Quick Lube, JA Oldfield and Son, and Nomad Hills. From Sandy Hook: Gilliam's IGA, 7 & 32 Auto Sales, Kentucky Bank, Commonwealth Cosmetology Inspector Teresa Conn, Discount Drug Mart, and Health Way Pharmacy.

Also thanks to VFW Post 2734 Ladies Auxiliary of Maysville.

Everyone should feel very proud of the way these Youth represented Kentucky at the Shoot.

Morgan Co. student participates in 2008 Gov. Scholars pgm.

Approximately 1,076 outstanding high school juniors attended this year's Governor's Scholars program for five weeks in June and July, including Morgan County student David Tyler Haney.

"This program is an outstanding educational opportunity for these young people," Gov. Steve Beshear said. "By participating, students will have the unique opportunity to exchange ideas and discover different points of view while interacting with other students and learning new disciplines.

"My congratulations to those young Kentuckians who have been chosen to share in this exciting program."

A statewide selection committee chose the participants for the nationally recognized program from nominations submitted from each Kentucky school district. Selection criteria included academic records and test scores, teacher recommendations, extra-curricular activities and essays. The program is free to those who attend.

Scholars balance a busy academic schedule in the sciences, mathematics, humanities and the arts with a variety of co-curricular activities and a rich residential life. They participated in community improvement programs, seminars and other activities.

You Are the Key to Fighting Cancer!

Join your community in the fight against cancer! The American Cancer Society Relay For Life will be held August 15th-16th, 6pm to 6am at Morgan County Equestrian Park. Teams of people in our community will take turns walking or running around the track in this non-competitive event. Relay teams consist of individuals representing corporations, churches, clubs, organizations and families. During Relay For Life, team members enjoy games, food, music and camaraderie while camping out on the surrounding grounds.

At dusk, all participants will share in a special luminaria ceremony to remember those individuals who have been affected by cancer. Candles will be lit in honor or memory of cancer patients and placed around the perimeter of the track. You are invited to support this effort by ordering a luminaria in honor of a loved one who has been touched by cancer. Simply fill out the back of this form and mail your order to the address listed on the reverse side.
